On 3rd October, His Majesty's (HM) Government announced an agreement to cede sovereignty of the British Indian Ocean Territory (BIOT) - otherwise known as the Chagos archipelago - to Mauritius. This decision has aroused considerable debate from across the political spectrum, and beyond British shores.

The situation in the British Indian Ocean Territory is completely different and not comparable, and I regret that in a way this decision has been made against the backdrop of a Conservative leadership contest, and that colleagues who know a lot better have sought to make partisan points with something so important.
