When should Kosovo prepare a national energy and Climate Plan?

Kosovo is in the process of preparing the National Energy and Climate Plan (NECP). NECPs should cover the period from 2021 to 2030, including a perspective for every ten years until 2050, in order to ensure consistency with long-term relevant policy objectives as per EU, UNFCCC and Energy Community criteria.

Why is Kosovo not fully recognized?

Kosovo's security and progress are considerably constrained by its current international position, in which its independence is irreversible, but not fully recognized due to Serbia's and Russia's active roles in preventing Kosovo from obtaining further recognitions and memberships in international organizations.

Can a sustainable peace between Kosovo and Serbia be achieved?

Even with mutual recognition, sustainable peace between Kosovo and Serbia is not possible without a process of dealing with the past. However, a clearer distinction needs to be made between the normalization of relations between states in an international order and one of societal and state reconciliation.

How did Kosovo become a world leader?

Riding on the coattails of Western power and with its security underwritten by NATO, Kosovo was able to establish itself in the international arena by obtaining a high number of bilateral recognitions, as well as membership in multilateral institutions like the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank.

Is Kosovo a member of the IOC?

The Olympic Committee of Kosovo has been in existence since 1992. Kosovo was a provisional member of the IOC from 22 October 2014 through 9 December 2014. Kosovo played their first official match in 2014, against Haiti.

International governments are divided on the issue of recognition of the independence of Kosovo from Serbia, which was declared in 2008. [1] [2] The Government of Serbia does not diplomatically recognise Kosovo as a ...
