These energy storage devices are very useful when the demand for energy is higher than supply. The demand for lithium-ion technology in the renewable energy sector is consistently on the rise due to greater benefits associated with this technology. However, lithium-ion battery technology exhibits higher prices compared to other battery technology.

Located in the commune of Mana, the photovoltaic (PV) farm will be capable of generating 7,430 MWh of electricity, or enough to cover the consumption of roughly 3,090 inhabitants of Western Guiana. The plant is coupled with a 10.6-MWh lithium-ion battery storage facility, which will help stabilize the local grid during high-demand periods.
