Costa Rica's "urban mine" for planet-friendlier lithium March 13 2023, by Alberto Pérez Fortech's minerals are sourced from 1,500 tons of used batteries thrown away every year in Costa Rica alone. Costa Rica, a country where open pit mining is banned, has become a leader in the extraction of heavy metals such as lithium--not from the 1/6

Enthusiasts believe lithium metal batteries built with ceramic separators offer longer battery life, and in some cases lighter form factors, as well as improved thermal stability largely due to the reduction of flammable liquids that are in contact with lithium metal.
