

What is Misool Island known for?

In the rural areas of Misool Island, local people still generally have a close relationship with nature. They often perform offering rituals to honour the living things around them. The tradition is considered to play the role to maintain the forests, water, land, and all the riches on earth.

Is Misool Island protected?

The seas of Misool Island were fully protected in 2007 and the recovery from the damage of loose and destructive fishing has been incredible. Once being hunted, the turtles are now seen serenely foraging the bottom of the sea, by the sand and the seagrass.

Is Misool an Enchanted Island?

Those who have been on the island couldn't help but agree that Misool is an enchanted island of healing and exploration where peace and adventure seamlessly coexists. Abundant and thriving with life - words that best describe the existence beneath the deep blue waters of Misool.

What are the best tourist spots on Misool Island?

Here are the best tourist spots that you can explore. The first must-visit destination on Misool Island is Karawapop Lake, located in the Karawapop Geosite area. This lake is also known as Love Lagoon because the shape of the lake resembles a heart or love. To enjoy the view of the heart-shaped lake, you must climb to the top of the hill.

Why is Misool so special?

Being a remote island destination has made Misool exclusive to those who are brave enough to pursue the island despite its location and to explore the life beneath its waters. The seas of Raja Ampat were once vastly stripped off small and larger fish, including sharks, through years of unregulated fishing.

Does Misool resort include a night in Sorong?

Most packages to Misool Resort include a night in Sorong after your trip, as most flights out of Sorong depart in the morning. We boarded the Misool Dive Resort transfer boat at 8:30 am for a 9 am departure. The boat is small but comfortable. Tip: make sure you have a good breakfast or bring some snacks. It is a 4 hours trip.
