

Is Gazprom provoking an energy crisis in Moldova?

President Maia Sandu on Thursday accused Gazprom of provoking an energy crisis in Moldova, saying the Russian energy giant was refusing to supply gas through an alternative route if the fuel stops flowing through Ukraine at the end of this year.

How much energy does Moldova use?

Moldova imports 100% of its gas and coal consumption, nearly all of its oil consumption and around 80% of its electricity (including electricity procured from the Moldavskaya GRES [power station] situated in Transnistria). 1 Second, Moldova has obligations stemming from its aspirations for European integration.

Is energy security a priority for Moldova?

Energy security is a priority for Moldova. International financial institutions, including the World Bank, the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), and the European Investment Bank (EIB) finance many projects strengthening Moldova's energy security.

Where does Moldova get its electricity from?

Moldavskaya GRES (MGRES) in the separatist region of Transnistria supplies the vast majority of the remaining 80 percent of electricity. Moldova also imports electricity from Ukraine and Romania. For years Moldova's natural gas consumption almost exclusively relied on Russian gas imports.

Does Moldova have a security of supply?

Moldova has adopted the full set of security of supply rules, even beyond the current Energy Community acquis. The Moldovan government is also to be praised for the efforts focused on market reforms and aligning the national legal framework for energy with that of the EU.

What are the sources of electricity and gas imports in Moldova?

The sources of electricity and gas imports are not diversified and crucially depend on gas supply from Russia and electricity supply from the Moldavskaya GRES power station, which operates beyond the control of the Moldovan government.
