Rubix Energy Group representa a las empresas y a miles de empleados esenciales que trabajan arduamente y que resuelven un problema oculto: reciclar de manera responsable las más de 800.000 baterías de plomo-ácido usadas que se desecha en el país cada año. En lugar de llenar los vertederos de basura, la industria del reciclaje convierte los ...

Industrial motor-driven systems - including compressors, pumps and fans - are typically only around 36% efficient. With the right interventions, they can be optimised to hit 72%. This cuts energy waste, reduces cost and limits emissions. At a time when the energy crisis threatens to slow - or even reverse - progress on environmental and ...
